Results of a state wide survey, confirm people are missing their bridge and do not wish to return with new inconvenient conditions.

6 General Business:

6.1 When to open and where

Greig spoke to Sue Strange of Red Cross. The Rooms are not opening yet as NSW is facing uncertain times with the return of Covid cases in Sydney.

Bev is in contact with the Council to determine availability of Community Centre for Thursdays and their conditions for the room's use during the pandemic. Bev to report to Greig.

6.2 Other Options.

Members can organise their own social games.

Greig could do a roster for Monday night with play at the member's home. Jenny could do same for Thursday.

Victoria Burke is happy to organise a knockout competition to be played in homes.

6.3 AGM

Beryl to contact Department of Fair Trading to defer AGM for 12 months. Beryl to report to Greig

6.4 Email to members

Are you interested in playing if the Committee can find a venue? Red Cross rooms are unavailable. Numbers may be limited and sessions reduced. Rules for social distancing and hygiene are necessary. Bridge unfortunately cannot be made risk free as we share cards and space.

Also introduce the “knockout” competition to be organised by Victoria.
